MY GRACE

is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.

2 Corinthians 12:9 KJV

Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

The God Who Sometimes Says No

My Grace Is Sufficient

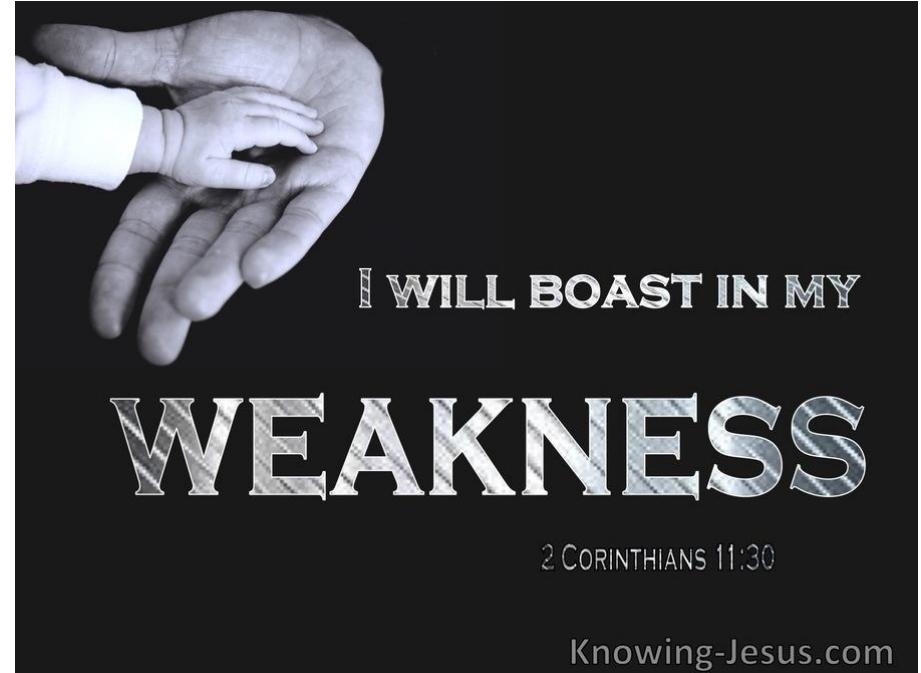

A wide-angle photograph of a coastal scene. In the foreground, the ocean with its turquoise and teal hues meets a rocky shoreline. The middle ground shows a dry, grassy coastal plain leading up to a range of mountains. The mountains are partially obscured by a layer of low-lying clouds or fog, with the peaks appearing darker and more rugged. The sky is a clear, pale blue.

"My grace is sufficient for you,
for my power is made perfect in weakness."

(2 Cor. 12:9)

When we are strong, we are tempted to trust ourselves.
When we are weak, we are invited to trust God.
"My strength is perfect in weakness." (2 Cor. 12:9)

So That the Power of Christ May Rest
Upon Me

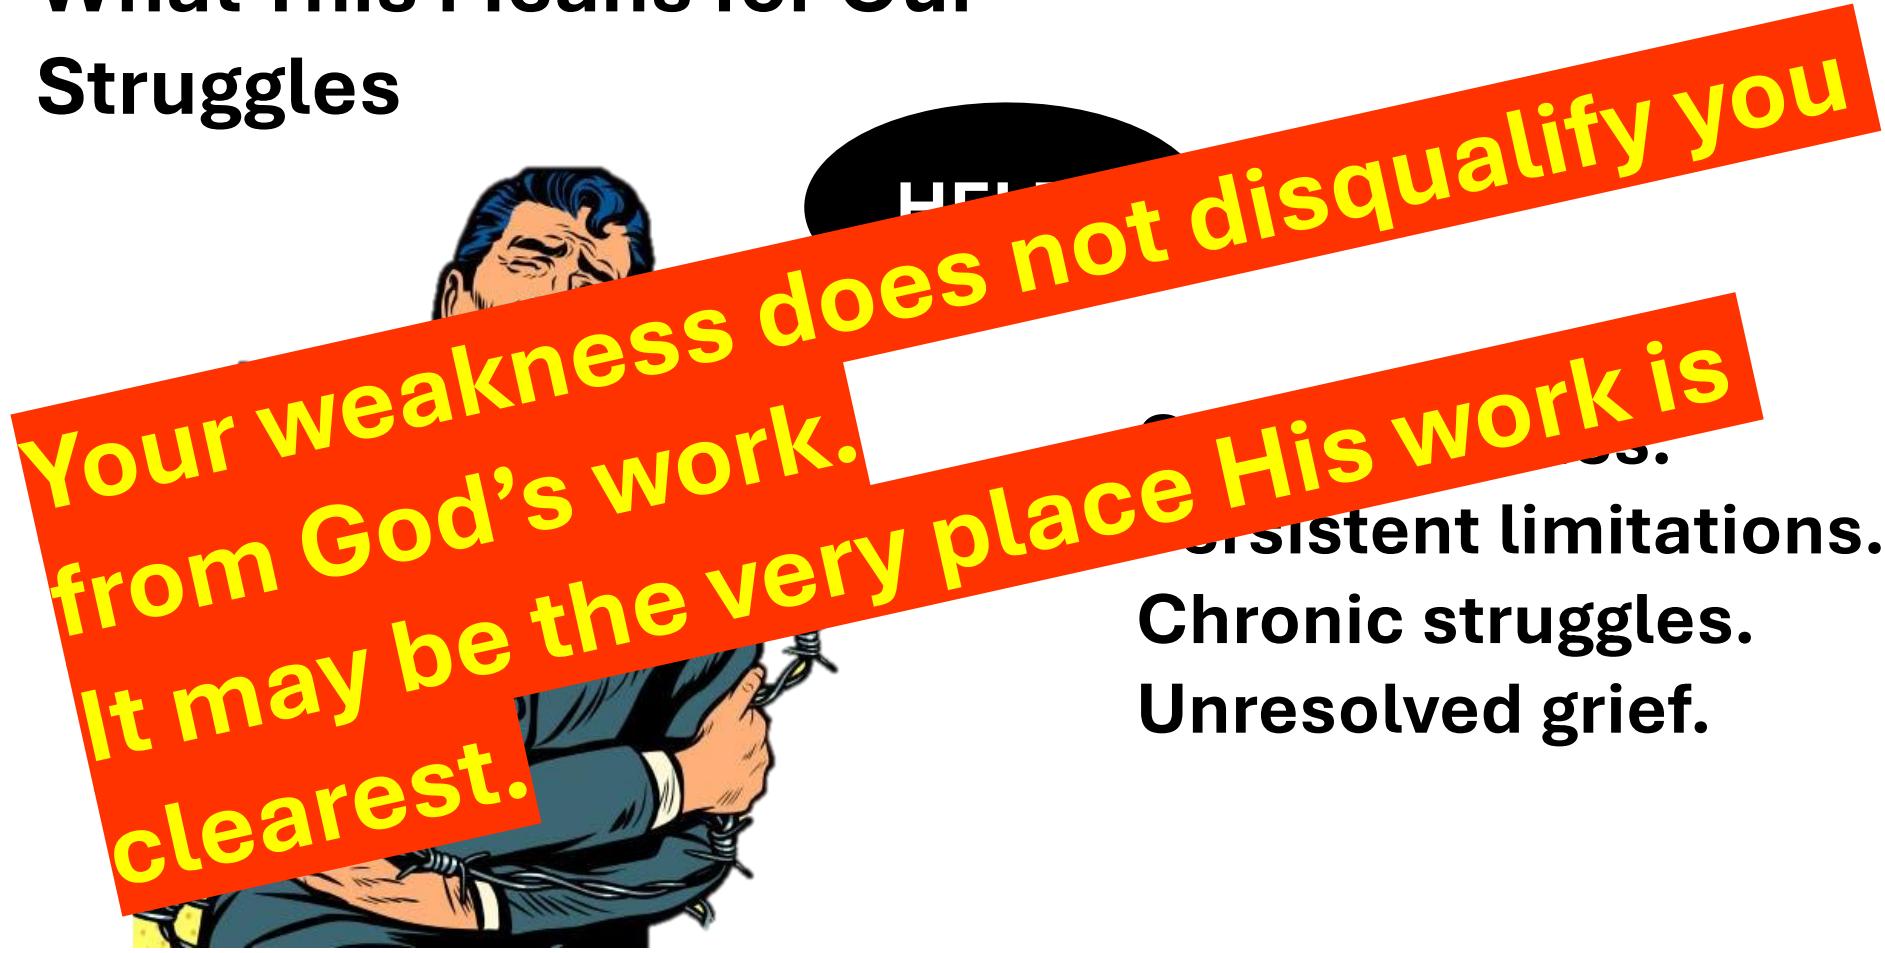

What This Means for Our Struggles

Ongoing issues.
Persistent limitations.
Chronic struggles.
Unresolved grief.

What This Means for Our Struggles

The Cross: Where Power and Weakness Meet

Learning to Live Differently

- We stop pretending we are fine when we are not.
- We stop hiding what God wants to inhabit.
- We stop despising the places God wants to use.

A Word to the Weary
